

YOUR SMALL MACHINE SHOP JUST GOT BIGGER

DV-CNC-NP and DV-CNC3-NP – The Perfect Fit

If you're looking for a simple way to make substantial gains in the efficiency of your machine shop, look no further. The CNC Series ChipMasters return filtered coolant back to your machine tool or into a collection drum through a unique reverse flow system. A second step through an optional polypropylene filter provides additional filtration down to 300 microns. A tangential intake port allows you to recover not just chips and coolant, but strings and clumps as well.
